$33,561.10 Current Balance.

Includes check from the Real Estate Center and the two checks from the random $2,000 ($4,000 in total) folks that were donated to us.

City of Lead still has not given us our second payment for 2022. Dustin will attend the next City Commission meeting to request it.

$180 in donation box at the country club.

Jeff will talk with Homestake folks either this week or next week about meeting with them to reroute the trail.

Dustin updated that Josiah reached out to him about giving a month until they proceed with moving forward with the "default" of the easement. The message was sent via text.

City of Deadwood had Ferber Engineering do easement exhibits for the reroute sections. We have those in hand.

Groomed about 120 miles. Axbow has helped a lot this year.

This week working on the single-track for the fat tire bikers.

Dustin might move where the donation box due to how the parking lot has been plowed this year.

We have not done any work on this since last time we discussed it.

Everyone is on board. Just need to move this forward.

8ft wide. gravel or asphalt. concrete rock retaining wall.

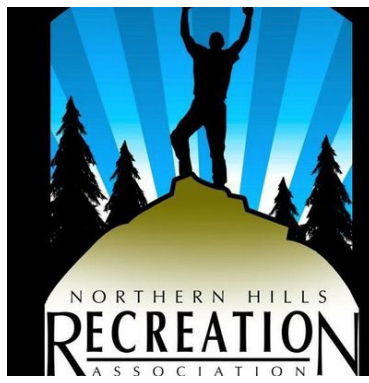

Kevin to reach out to Tallgrass on this.

7. Adjournment ¹¹

- Axbow talking about fat tire race out at Tomahawk.
- Sledding hill is a go again this year.

Tomahawk event from Josh at the end of the year. He is talking about that with Nick. Black Hills Fat Tire Fest. Josh & Nick working on the weekend of March 4th. Lost Cabin and Shivers to sponsor. It's close to a full moon so it would be a night time party thing.

Clubhouse is off limits, even for a fee, so see if a place will do a tent or Dustin suggested revamping their alternate maintenance shed that Tomahawk does not use to use for the event.
